

History of Bequests Leaves Legacy for Years to Come

Evergreen’s history of legacy giving began in 1982. In 1988 Evergreen received its first largest bequest from founder Howard Rowland. He secured his dream for Evergreen through the Howard Rowland Trust whose annual earnings continue to help offset Evergreen’s benevolent need each year.

By the year 2000, Evergreen realized from 59 estate donors bequests totaling $2,412,000. Fifteen years later, an additional 52 bequests generated $5,312,685 thus bringing the total legacy giving to $7,724,685 from 111 estates.

Since its beginning, Evergreen has reaped many benefits through the Rowlands’ legacy of faith. It has inspired us to change, improve and grow. Likewise, the Evergreen Foundation has reaped the benefits of the Rowlands’ legacy of generosity. It has inspired many to help change the course of Evergreen history.

LEAVE A LEGACY GUILD BEQUESTS

We are grateful for our residents and friends who have bequeathed their legacy gifts to Evergreen and made a lasting impact on Evergreen history.
